

Centre for Global Health, Population, Poverty, and Policy
Seminar on Fertility and Poverty: micro and macro linkages
28-29 January 2010 at the University of Southampton

We are inviting scholars and practitioners to attend a two-day seminar to be held at the University of Southampton. We encourage attendance from early career researchers and PhD students.

To register please fill in the form below and send it via email BY the 18th of JANUARY to rl@soton.ac.uk, places are limited and early registration recommended. For more information about our forthcoming seminars as well as details on the venue agenda and accommodation please visit <http://www.southampton.ac.uk/socsci/ghp3/Events/>.

A limited number of bursaries are available to UK students willing to present a poster related to the seminar up to a maximum of £120. To apply please send an abstract of 250 words to rl@soton.ac.uk by the 4th of January. Successful applicants will be notified by the 11th of January. Please note that reimbursement will be given on presentation of receipts.

Provisional Programme¹

Day 1 fertility and poverty

9.30-10.00 registration tea and coffee

10.00-10.15 Welcome and introduction

10.00-15-11.15 Eliya Zulu (AFIDEP) 'Family planning, fertility and poverty sub-Saharan Africa'

11.15-11.30 Coffee break

11.30-1300

- Judith Westeneng (Radboud University Nijmegen) and Ben D'Exelle (Radboud University Nijmegen), 'How Family Size Perpetuates Household Level Poverty: Evidence from Northern Tanzania'
- Ana Carvalho and Zoë Matthews (University of Southampton), 'How Women Calculate on the Survival of their Children in the Context of HIV/AIDS: Strategies, Child Hoarding and Fertility Behaviours'
- Papreen Nahar (Newcastle University), 'Link between infertility and poverty: a new evidence from Bangladesh'

13.00-1400 Lunch

1400-15.00

- Maria Porter (University of Oxford) and Elizabeth King (World Bank), 'Fertility And Women's Labor Force Participation In Developing Countries'
- Melanie Frost (University of Southampton), 'Security, Landholding and Fertility in Nepal'

15.00-15.30 Introduction to the discussion

15.30-16.00 Coffee break

¹ Abstracts will be available on the website

16.00-17.30 Discussion session

17.30-18.30 Poster session and wine reception

Day 2 Unmet Need and Poverty

9.00-10.00 PM Kulkarni (JNU), 'Unmet Need and Poverty Linkage in India'

10.00-11.00

- Mariachiara Di Cesare (LSE) and Jose' Vignoli (CELADE), 'Unmet need among poor Bolivian women: the interaction between readiness, willingness, and ability'
- Beth Outterson (Save the Children), 'Improving Family Planning in Rural Guatemala through Community-Service Provider Partnerships'

11-11.30 Coffee break

11.30-12.30

- Fiifi Amoako Johnson (University of Southampton), 'Targeting women at risk of unintended pregnancy in Ghana: should geography matter?'
- Angela Baschieri (LSHTM) et al., 'An assessment of the impact of unwanted pregnancy on child health in Northern Malawi: does the degree of unwantedness matter?'

12.30-13.30 Lunch break

13.30-14.30

- Sarah Shaw (IPPF), 'Generating national political and financial priority for RH supplies: a case study'
- Arben Fetai (MSI), 'Based Aid as a way to provide RH access to vulnerable populations'

14.30-15.30 The way forward: putting it all together

15.30-16.00 Conclusions and departure

Collaborators of the seminars series:

London School of Economics, London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, City University, Loughborough University, and University of Warwick.

Registration Form
Seminar on Fertility and Poverty: micro and macro linkages
28-29 January 2010 at the University of Southampton

Please complete this form and return to:

Rosemary Lawrence
School of Social Sciences, Rm 2037, Building 58
University of Southampton, Southampton SO17 1BJ
Fax: 023 80 593846 Tel: 023 80 598588 Email: rl@soton.ac.uk

Dates of Event: 28 and 29 January 2010

Venue of Event: Wide Lane Pavilion, Eastleigh

Name: _____ Title: _____

Job Title: (e.g. Research Officer, if employed)

Employer: (if employed)

Current Students Only:

Name of Degree Programme you are registered for: (e.g. PhD in Sociology)

Address for Correspondence:

E-mail: _____ Telephone: _____

Special Needs:

Do you have any disability which may require special arrangement of facilities (please give details).

Any special dietary or other requirements:

N.B. Travel and accommodation will be at the delegates own expense

Travel and Accommodation:

For information on Travel please go to

<http://www.southampton.ac.uk/about/whereissoton/highfield.html>

For information on Accommodation please go to <http://www.eurobookings.com/southampton-hotels-gb/premier-inn-southampton-airport.html>

or <http://www.highfieldlanehotel.co.uk>